For more than 25 years, the famous mountain resort of Gstaad has hosted a polo tournament every summer. The 2024 edition will take place from 22-25 August, with the event being held in the middle of the Gstaad-Saanen airport, which is very popular with the many VIPs who reside in the resort.

We are trying to organise a dream tournament for the four teams invited to play in this 14-goal competition. For the past 19 years, I have taken over the presidency and overall organisation of this event, raising the bar as much as possible with a choice of prestigious partners. These include title sponsor Hublot, Gstaad Palace, Kielder Agro Group, Aston Martin, Albinati Aeronautics, Dassault Aviation and many others. All of them have been with us for many years.

In order to attract such high-status sponsors, firstly you need to have a good network of worldwide contacts in your mobile. Then you must only speak with the owner or with the CEO of each firm, never anyone below. Then, have a meeting or a lunch with the owner or CEO without speaking about the tournament, choosing interesting subjects to discuss regarding their firm. At the end of the meeting, they automatically ask about the polo and already say they are interested in coming.

In the large VIP tent we serve more than 400 lunches per day from a huge buffet prepared by Gstaad Palace. There is also a big gala night on Saturday evening. During the last tournament we welcomed a total of 1,340 VIPs, and our guests have exclusive access to a terrace overlooking the field to watch the games.

Around the tent we have an exhibition village where the public can stroll around and enjoy food stands and children's attractions. Throughout this long weekend, players, sponsors and VIPs will be treated to a multitude of activities around Gstaad, including evenings in the mountains, numerous cocktail parties and the grand parade through the village on Friday.

With the sole aim of staging a tournament of the highest sporting and social calibre, the Polo Club Gstaad is determined to maintain polo as the elite and prestigious sport it deserves to be.

A WINNING FORMULA

Combine exhilarating polo action with spectacular mountain views, world-class hospitality and a glamorous gala evening that attracts the social elite, and you have a winning formula for enticing the highest-calibre sponsors and guests year after year, as demonstrated by Pierre E. Genecand with the Hublot Polo Gold Cup in Gstaad.

Visiting Gstaad in summer is an enchanting experience – a chance to marvel at the peaks when they are not blanketed by snow. As far as polo fields go, the field in Gstaad is one of the most picturesque of locations, set against Alpine countryside on the Gstaad-Saanen airfield.

Lunch is a feast of a buffet, prepared by Gstaad Palace – one of the most luxurious hotels in Gstaad – and the Saturday night gala is an indulgent four-course dinner with live entertainment giving guests a chance to don their finest black-tie attire and party the night away, dancing into the early hours at the afterparty in the GreenGo Club.

And the polo itself is known for intense rivalry between the players, especially the highest-rated players, 7-goal Martin Aguerre Jr, who played for team Hublot last year, and 6-goal Raúl Laplacette, who has won the tournament for the past two years for team Clinique La Prairie and team Gstaad respectively. Official timekeeper Hublot has supported this event for over 15 years, thanks to its friendship with Pierre Genecand, the incomparable venue, refined crowd and first-rate hospitality. Dates for this year's tournaments are 22-25 August – mark it in your social calendar now.

The Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad (22 to 25 August 2024)

May 15, 2024 News Items 0

Wednesday May 15, 2024

The Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad is a special time in the international polo calendar, an enchanted interlude on the world circuit. A unique world of intense competition and glamour in the heart of the magnificent Swiss Alps. At an altitude of 1,100 meters, in the unusual setting of the Gstaad/Saanen airport, this unique event promises four extraordinary days dedicated to the world's oldest team sport.

Much more than a tournament, the Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad is a unique sporting event and a celebration of equestrian excellence and luxury. The number of teams wanting to take part in the tournament increases every year, making it a daunting task for the organizers to select those who will be lucky enough to set foot on this very special field.

This year, the Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad will welcome a new team: first of all, a new partner, the prestigious investment bank J. SAFRA SARASIN, whose French captain Françoise Okala will be playing in Gstaad for the first time together with the Argentine Fanelli brothers as well as Horacio Fernández Llorente.

The GSTAAD PALACE will be represented this year by two Swiss brothers, Fabio and Luca Meier, who have often shone in Gstaad: will this be the year? Chances are good as they team up with Argentine brothers Adrian and Raul Laplacette. The latter, who has already won the Hublot Polo Gold Cup twice, knows this particular terrain like the back of his hand.

But the battle will be fierce. Swiss captains Philipp Müller and Cedric Schweri have opted for an all-British squad for their KIELDER AGRO GROUP team, including the formidable Max Charlton, a very fast and responsive player with his English horses. Charlton is an all-round player who shone on the snow in Saint-Moritz and has a handicap of 10 in arena polo! But he is just as impressive on grass: last year he won the traditional Westchester Cup in Wellington (USA), a high-goal match between Great Britain and the United States.

The team of title sponsor HUBLOT and German captain Jürgen Schröder, who was a finalist last year, will also be supported by a sibling pair – there will be four in total at this tournament – brothers Pedro and Manuel Fernández Llorente. The final will be broadcast on Pololine TV and there will be free access for the public, with children's play areas and catering.

A VIP experience

The Hublot Polo Gold Cup is not only a top-class sporting event, but also an exceptional experience on the sidelines with a VIP village (open to the public), exhibitors offering exclusive luxury products, the latest models from Aston Martin, as well as the latest model from Dassault Aviation, which will be exhibiting its brand new Falcon 6X at the airport, Albinati Aeronautics, Barnes... and of course Hublot, which will be presenting its new collections.

Celebrate the sport, its conviviality and its festive atmosphere in VIP style, with elegant lunches and refined cuisine prepared by the chefs of the Gstaad Palace, as well as a sumptuous gala dinner with entertainment from the band Dora on Stage.

All you have to do is book your place for this unforgettable experience at www.pologstaad.ch, because the Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad is much more than just a tournament – it is an event not to be missed for lovers of refinement and thrills

Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad: raffinatezza, sport ed eleganza (22-25 agosto 2024).

La Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad è un momento speciale nel calendario internazionale del polo, una parentesi incantata nel circuito mondiale.

Un mondo unico di intensa competizione e glamour nel cuore delle magnifiche Alpi svizzere. A 1.100 metri di altitudine, nell'insolita cornice dell'aeroporto di Gstaad/Saanen, questo evento unico promette quattro giorni straordinari dedicati allo sport di squadra più antico del mondo.

Molto più di un torneo, la Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad è un evento sportivo unico e una celebrazione dell'eccellenza equestre e del lusso. Il numero di squadre che desiderano partecipare al torneo aumenta ogni anno, rendendo arduo il compito degli organizzatori di selezionare coloro che avranno la fortuna di calcare questo campo molto speciale.

HORSE SHOW JUMPING

Quest'anno, la Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad accoglierà una nuova squadra: innanzitutto un nuovo partner, la prestigiosa banca d'investimento J. SAFRA SARASIN, il cui capitano francese Françoise Okala giocherà per la prima volta a Gstaad insieme ai fratelli argentini Fanelli e Horacio Fernández Llorente.

Il GSTAAD PALACE sarà rappresentato quest'anno da due fratelli svizzeri, Fabio e Luca Meier, che hanno spesso brillato a Gstaad: sarà l'anno giusto? Le possibilità sono buone, visto che fanno coppia con i fratelli argentini Adrian e Raul Laplacette. Quest'ultimo, che ha già vinto due volte la Hublot Polo Gold Cup, conosce questo terreno come le sue tasche.

Ma la battaglia sarà feroce. I capitani svizzeri Philipp Müller e Cedric Schweri hanno optato per una squadra tutta britannica per il loro KIELDER AGRO GROUP, tra cui il formidabile Max Charlton, un giocatore molto veloce e reattivo con i suoi cavalli inglesi. Charlton è un giocatore a tutto tondo che ha brillato sulla neve a Saint-Moritz e ha un handicap di 10 nel polo arena! Ma è altrettanto impressionante sull'erba: l'anno scorso ha vinto la tradizionale Westchester Cup a Wellington (USA), una partita ad alto punteggio tra Gran Bretagna e Stati Uniti.

La squadra del title sponsor HUBLOT e del capitano tedesco Jürgen Schröder, finalista l'anno scorso, sarà supportata anche da una coppia di fratelli – saranno quattro in totale in questo torneo – i fratelli Pedro e Manuel Fernández Llorente. La finale sarà trasmessa da Pololine TV e l'accesso al pubblico sarà gratuito, con aree gioco per bambini e ristorazione.

Un'esperienza da VIP

La Hublot Polo Gold Cup non è solo un evento sportivo di prim'ordine, ma anche un'esperienza eccezionale a bordo campo, con un villaggio VIP (aperto al pubblico), espositori che offrono prodotti di lusso esclusivi, gli ultimi modelli di Aston Martin, nonché l'ultimo modello di Dassault Aviation, che esporrà il suo nuovissimo Falcon 6X all'aeroporto, Albinati Aeronautics, Barnes... e naturalmente Hublot, che presenterà le sue nuove collezioni.

Celebrate lo sport, la sua convivialità e la sua atmosfera festosa in stile VIP, con pranzi eleganti e una cucina raffinata preparata dagli chef del Gstaad Palace, nonché una sontuosa cena di gala con l'intrattenimento della band Dora on Stage.

Non resta che prenotare il proprio posto per questa indimenticabile esperienza su www.pologstaad.ch, perché la Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad è molto più di un semplice torneo: è un evento da non perdere per gli amanti della raffinatezza e delle emozioni.

La Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad n'est pas un tournoi comme les autres. Un décor à nulle autre pareille, sur ce terrain si caractéristique qui borde la piste d'atterrissage de l'aéroport de Gstaad-Saanen, à 1100 m, un véritable théâtre de verdure entouré de majestueux monts alpins pour le plus ancien des sports d'équipe. À Gstaad, le polo prend une toute autre dimension.

Un tournoi et un titre prestigieux qui attirent les convoitises de bon nombre de capitaines d'équipes, mais les places sont limitées, car la Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad se dispute sur un format qui lui est propre : quatre jours, dont un de repos (consacré au traditionnel défilé dans les rues du village), quatre matchs pour désigner les finalistes. La demande est forte, mais les places sont chères, car elles ne sont que quatre. Cette année, les quatre capitaines élus, dont une femme pour la première fois à Gstaad, la Française Françoise Okala, viennent de trois nations différentes, Allemagne, Suisse et France. En tout, les seize joueurs représenteront six nations, avec des professionnels argentins, italiens et britanniques : on ne peut faire plus cosmopolite avec ce nombre minimum de quatre équipes. Gstaad séduit !

En « faire partie »

Les capitaines et leurs professionnels aiment Gstaad non seulement pour la qualité sportive de l'évènement, mais également pour la convivialité et le lifestyle qui y règnent avec des soirées dans des lieux aussi privilégiés que le Gstaad Palace ou le très exclusif Club de Luge de Gstaad, sans oublier la soirée de gala sous l'immense tente Barnum décorée avec raffinement en bordure de terrain. Une soirée ouverte à tous ceux qui veulent s'y joindre, comme le sont les deux déjeuners VIP des samedi 24 et dimanche 25 en suivant le lien à partir du QR-Code ci-dessous. Car la Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad est une fête qui se partage.

Il polo al vertice!

La Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad è un torneo senza precedenti.

In uno scenario senza precedenti, su questo campo eccezionale accanto alla pista dell'aeroporto di Gstaad-Saanen a 1100 m, un maestoso palcoscenico di verde immerso nelle montagne alpine mette in scena lo sport di squadra più antico del mondo.

Questo prestigioso torneo attira l'interesse di molti capitani di squadra, ma i posti sono limitati, poiché la Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad ha un formato unico: quattro giorni, compreso un giorno di riposo (dedicato alla tradizionale sfilata attraverso il villaggio), quattro partite determinano i finalisti. La richiesta è alta, ma i posti sono esclusivi, poiché sono solo quattro. Quest'anno, i quattro capitani eletti – tra cui una donna per la prima volta a Gstaad, la francese Françoise Okala – provengono da tre nazioni diverse, Germania, Svizzera e Francia. In totale, i sedici giocatori rappresenteranno sei nazioni, con professionisti provenienti da Argentina, Italia e Regno Unito: non potrebbe essere più cosmopolita con questo numero minimo di quattro squadre. Gstaad ci incanta!

Partecipa anche tu!

I capitani e i loro professionisti amano Gstaad, non solo per la qualità dello sport, ma anche per l'ospitalità e lo stile di vita che completano l'esperienza, con serate di festa tra cui il prestigioso gala sotto l'immensa tenda Barnum, elegantemente decorata, a bordo campo. Si tratta di una serata aperta a tutti coloro che desiderano partecipare, così come i due pranzi VIP di sabato 24 e domenica 25, basta seguire il QR-Code qui sotto. Dopo tutto, la Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad è una festa da condividere.

Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad: Polo en la cumbre

Este prestigioso torneo atrae el interés de muchos capitanes de equipo, pero las plazas son limitadas, ya que la Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad tiene su propio formato único: cuatro días, incluido un día de descanso (dedicado al tradicional desfile por el pueblo) y cuatro partidos que determinan los finalistas. La demanda es alta, pero las plazas son exclusivas: sólo hay cuatro.

Este año, los cuatro capitanes elegidos, incluida una mujer por primera vez en Gstaad, la francesa Françoise Okala, provienen de tres naciones diferentes: Alemania, Suiza y Francia. En total, los dieciséis jugadores representarán a seis países, con profesionales de Argentina, Italia y Reino Unido. Gstaad no podría ser más cosmopolita con este número mínimo de cuatro equipos.

POLO : À Gstaad, le polo prend de la hauteur

Written by Floriane Dumont. Posted in à la une, Tous sports

Départ en fanfare à Gstaad aujourd'hui avec les deux premiers matchs de qualification de la Hublot Polo Gold Cup 2024 d'un excellent niveau de polo dans ce cadre unique de l'aéroport de Gstaad-Saanen entouré de ces verdoyantes montagnes, marque de fabrique de ce terrain de jeu à nul autre pareil.

Le premier match voyait s'opposer l'équipe J. Safra Sarasin de la Française Françoise Okala face à Gstaad Palace des frères suisses Fabio et Luca Meier associés aux cousins argentins Raul et Adrian Laplacette. Raul a l'avantage du terrain et de ses dimensions spécifiques qu'il connait bien pour y avoir triomphé à deux reprises, en 2023 et 2022. Les frères Meier se connaissent bien, les cousins Laplacette également, et c'est sans doute tout cela mis bout à bout qui a fait la différence dès le deuxième chukker où Gstaad Palace a fait le premier break à 6-4.

Un rythme que l'équipe n'allait plus lâcher jusqu'à la fin de ce premier match qu'elle remportait haut la main. J. Safra Sarasin n'a pourtant pas démérité, mais il lui manquait un temps d'adaptation : Laplacette avait un coup d'avance !

Un scénario différent pour la deuxième rencontre entre Kielder Agro Group du capitaine suisse Philipp Mueller et Hublot menée par l'Allemand Jurgen Schröder. Longtemps, l'issue est restée incertaine avec un jeu plus défensif : 5 ½ à 5 en fin de troisième période où Max Charlton est passé à la vitesse supérieure inscrivant 3 goals au cours des trois premières minutes de jeu. Jaime Roberts alourdissait la facture avec un neuvième goal dans les dernières minutes tandis que les joueurs de Hublot restaient muets.

Match 1

Gstaad Palace : Fabio Meier 1, Luca Meier 1 (3 goals), Adrien Laplacette 6 (3 goals) et Raul Laplacette 6 (4 goals)

J. Safra Sarasin : Françoise Okala 0, Bautista Fanelli 3 (1 goal), Horacio Fernandez Llorente 6 (3 goals) et Tete Fanelli 5 (2 goals)

Progression Gstaad Palace : 2-3 / 7-4 / 8-4 et 10-6

Match 2

Hublot : Jurgen Schröder 0 , Juan Correa 3 (1 goal), Pedro Fernandez Llorente 5 (3 goals), Manuel Fernandez Llorente 6 (1 goals)

Kielder Agro Group : Philipp Mueller 0, Jaime Robert 3 (2 goals) Nacho Gonzales 4 (1 goal) et Max Charlton 6 (6 goals)

Progression Kielder Agro Group : (½ goal d'avantage) 1 ½ -2 / 3 ½ -3 / 5 ½ -5 / 9 ½ -5

POLO IN SWITZERLAND

The prestigious Hublot Polo Gold Cup commenced on Thursday August 22 at the Polo Club Gstaad, in Gstaad, Switzerland, sorrounded by the beauty of the Swiss Alps, on the impeccable grounds set in the Gstaad/Saanen airfields, that provides a magnificient scenario for a unique competition. The contest sees four teams up to 14 goals, partake, who will compete for the coveted trophy up to Sunday August 25.

Gstaad Palace and J. Safra Sarasin opened fire. The locals, commanded by a remarkable Raúl Laplacette, who is aiming for a hat trick in Gstaad, remained in the lead from the second chukka onwards. At the end of the day, luck was on the Meier family's team, who claimed a 10-6 win.

Up next, Hublot and Kielder Agro rode onto the field to play the second contest. With Max Charlton as their flagship man – he produced six goals – Kielder Agro bounced back in the second chukka, but their momentum came in the fourth chukka, when they earned a wide advantage, that allowed them to seal the deal through an impressive 9.5-5 win.

The Hublot Polo Gold Cup will be back on Saturday August 24, with the semifinals:

Hublot Polo Gold Cup: dos favoritos emergen y gran cantidad de goles

Gran comienzo de la Hublot Polo Gold Cup 2024, el singular torneo de Polo que se disputa en el aeropuerto Gstaad-Saanen de la localidad suiza de Gstaad. Un Polo excepcional en un escenario único, rodeado por las verdes montañas que son su sello distintivo.

El primer partido enfrentó al equipo J. Safra Sarasin, encabezado por la francesa Françoise Okala contra el equipo del Gstaad Palace formado por los hermanos suizos Fabio y Luca Meier, y los primos argentinos Raúl y Adrián Laplacette. Raúl tiene la ventaja de conocer bien el terreno y sus dimensiones específicas después de haber triunfado en Gstaad tanto en 2022 como en 2023. Los hermanos Meier están bastante familiarizados entre sí, al igual que los primos Laplacette.

Todo ello contribuyó a marcar diferencias y Gstaad Palace logró la primera escapada en el segundo chukker con 6-4. El equipo mantuvo el ritmo hasta el final del primer partido, ganando sin dejar lugar a dudas. J. Safra Sarasin necesita tiempo para adaptarse.

La historia fue diferente en el segundo partido entre Kielder Agro Group, capitaneado por el suizo Philipp Mueller, y Hublot, dirigido por el alemán Jürgen Schröder. El resultado fue incierto durante la mayor parte del encuentro, presentando un juego más defensivo: 5 1/2 a 5 al final del tercer período, en el que Max Charlton cambió de marcha y anotó 3 goles en los primeros tres minutos de juego. Jamie Roberts aumentó luego la cuenta, logrando un noveno gol en los minutos finales.

Gstaad, 22 agosto 2024 – La Hublot Polo Gold Cup 2024 ha preso il via oggi con le prime due partite di qualificazione, regalando emozioni nella cornice unica dell'aeroporto di Gstaad-Saanen, circondato dalle verdi montagne che fanno da sfondo a questo campo straordinario.

Nel primo match, la squadra del Gstaad Palace, composta dai fratelli svizzeri Fabio e Luca Meier e dai cugini argentini Raul e Adrian Laplacette, ha affrontato il team J. Safra Sarasin, capitanato dalla francese Françoise Okala. Raul Laplacette, forte delle sue precedenti vittorie su questo campo nel 2022 e 2023, ha dimostrato subito di conoscere bene il terreno, portando la sua squadra a un vantaggio iniziale. L'affiatamento tra i fratelli Meier e i cugini Laplacette ha fatto la differenza, consentendo al Gstaad Palace di prendere il largo nel secondo chukker con un punteggio di 6-4. La squadra ha mantenuto il ritmo fino alla fine, vincendo nettamente la partita con un punteggio finale di 10-6. Nonostante l'impegno, il team J. Safra Sarasin ha faticato ad adattarsi al gioco rapido e preciso degli avversari, rimanendo indietro.

Il secondo incontro ha visto sfidarsi il Kielder Agro Group, capitanato dallo svizzero Philipp Mueller, e la squadra Hublot, guidata dal tedesco Jurgen Schröder. Questo match è stato caratterizzato da un maggiore equilibrio, con una forte difesa da entrambe le parti. Al termine del terzo periodo, il punteggio era di 5½ a 5, ma è stato l'inglese Max Charlton a cambiare le sorti della partita. Charlton ha segnato ben tre goal nei primi tre minuti del quarto periodo, spingendo la sua squadra verso la vittoria. Jamie Roberts ha poi siglato il nono goal nei minuti finali, mentre la squadra Hublot non è riuscita a rispondere, chiudendo la partita con un punteggio di 9½ a 5.

Hublot Polo Gold Cup: Gstaad Palace y Kielder Agro Group, a la final

Las semifinales de la Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad 2024 estuvieron a la altura de las expectativas en términos de emoción, ya que ninguno de los semifinalistas logró dominar sus partidos. Para ambos, el resultado permaneció indeciso hasta los instantes finales, aunque fueron dos partidos con perfiles muy distintos.

El partido entre el Gstaad Palace y el Hublot fue considerablemente ofensivo, mientras que el otro, entre el Kielder Agro Group y J.Safra Sarasin fue más bien defensivo. Paradójicamente, en este último hubo más goles, pero lo cierto es que la mayoría de estos goles se marcaron en los penaltis. Para el Gstaad Palace, la química entre los hermanos Meier y los primos Laplacette demostró, una vez más, ser una ventaja efectiva.

Aun así, fue una batalla feroz hasta los momentos finales, como señaló el máximo goleador del Gstaad Palace, el suizo Luca Meier. "El último minuto fue muy largo cuando Hublot volvió a meterse en el partido. Cometimos muchos errores y ese fue nuestro problema. Ganamos por un mínimo margen de un gol, 7-6, y el último minuto fue duro. Estoy contento de haber marcado cuatro goles, aunque hoy ha sido más complicado porque el campo estaba más tosco que ayer cuando marqué tres. Era más difícil controlar la pelota, porque rebotaba por todos lados, pero al final salió bien."

El delantero del Gstaad Palace quiso destacar el papel de Raúl Laplacette en la victoria: "Dado que ha ganado las dos últimas ediciones de la Hublot Polo Gold Cup, pensamos que sería una buena idea reclutarlo este año. Es muy satisfactorio jugar con los Laplacette. Los conocemos desde pequeños porque en Argentina tenemos nuestras instalaciones de Polo en el mismo pueblo, en Lobos, así que siempre nos hemos relacionado".

En la siguiente semifinal, el jugador clave fue Max Charlton. El inglés tuvo una estrategia ligeramente diferente en este juego en comparación con Raúl Laplacette, subiendo la olla a presión, obligándose a sí mismo y a sus compañeros de equipo a permanecer lo más cerca posible de sus oponentes en un esfuerzo por provocar una falta. Este planteamiento resultó ser exitoso, y su victoria no fue tan fácil como la del pasado jueves, ya que la oposición de J.Safra Sarasin fue más fuerte de lo esperado.

Más complicado de lo esperado para los ingleses Max Charlton y Kielder Agro Group contra Tato Fanelli y J. Safra Sarasin, sin embargo aseguró su lugar en la final. (Foto: ©RSB Press/P.Ramaekers)

"Teníamos confianza, pero al final fue una victoria complicada", admitió el capitán Philipp Müller. "Al principio, nos llevó un tiempo coger el ritmo adecuado. Después de eso, todo salió bastante bien, pero nos dimos cuenta de que no podíamos dar nada por sentado en el último chukker. Igualaron el marcador a menos de un minuto y luego se pitó un penalti a nuestro favor. Eso es lo que finalmente nos salvó. Fue un partido intenso con muchas faltas, y quizás no el partido más bonito, pero lo principal es estar en la final".

Una final que supondrá un duelo entre capitanes suizos. La cita será el domingo a las 15 horas entre dos equipos, Gstaad Palace y Kielder Agro Group, que hasta ahora no se han enfrentado. ¿Quiénes serán los cuatro jugadores que saldrán de Gstaad con un magnífico reloj Hublot en la muñeca? Tendremos la respuesta alrededor de las 16 horas. La final estará precedida por el desempate para el tercer puesto, a las 13'30 horas.

Puede que no haya sido el partido más bonito de la semana, pero cuando la final está en juego, el único resultado atractivo es una victoria. Hoy en día, el Polo es un deporte de estrategia, combate y paciencia; y el británico Max Charlton demostró ser el más fuerte en este juego. Todo el talento de Raúl Laplacette no pudo hacer nada al respecto, a pesar de ser designado mejor jugador del partido.

Fue una final defensiva que, naturalmente, concluyó con un marcador bajo de 6-5. Fue una incertidumbre insoportable hasta el último minuto, con cada equipo devolviendo goles golpe a golpe. A falta de dos minutos para el final, una notable jugada individual de Raúl Laplacette volvió a igualar el marcador, y a pocos segundos del final, Max Charlton aprovechó otro penalty de 60 yardas. Fue el gol el que finalmente determinó el partido.

"Sí, fue una pelea dura, que se decidió en los penalties", admitió el británico. "Ganamos hoy porque tuvimos un poco más de suerte que el Gstaad Palace, ya que ambos equipos estuvimos muy igualados. Pero estoy especialmente contento de haber ganado aquí, sobre todo por nuestro capitán, Phillipp Müller. ¡Es increíble!"

J. Safra Sarasin, al tercer cajón del podio

El partido inaugural de la jornada de clausura, para determinar el tercer y cuarto puesto, fue controlado por el equipo del capitán francés François Okala, vistiendo los colores distintivos de J.Safra Sarasin, después de un segundo chukker lleno de acción. El hándicap 6 argentino, Horacio Fernández Llorente, lideró el ataque, marcando cuatro goles. Los "azules" dominaron el partido de principio a fin, después de tener ya "medido" el terreno de juego, tras haberlo descubierto el pasado jueves.

"En realidad, no ha sido así exactamente", matizó Tete Fanelli. "Es la tercera vez que juego aquí. He sido finalista dos veces antes, pero perdí en ambas ocasiones. Pensé que este sería mi año, así que no estoy completamente satisfecho con el tercer lugar. Eso no me impide disfrutar enormemente de este torneo, de su organización, de su ambiente. Así que estoy deseando volver e irme con el reloj".

Tal vez, a Tete Fanelli se le planteará la posibilidad el próximo año, del 21 al 24 de agosto, fechas que ya tiene establecidas el torneo para la próxima edición. Una y otra vez, los equipos expresan su satisfacción antes de regresar a casa y su deseo de volver. Esta edición no fue la excepción, una extraordinaria fiesta del Polo que no pudo ser estropeada por un poco de frío en la jornada del domingo.

POLO : Gold Cup Gstaad – Victoire suisse à l'anglaise

Written by Floriane Dumont. Posted in à la une, Tous sports

Ce ne fut peut-être pas le plus beau des matchs de la semaine, mais quand il s'agit d'une finale, seule la victoire est belle.

Un polo de stratégie, un polo de combat, un polo de patience : et à ce jeu, le Britannique Max Charlton s'est montré le plus fort. Tout le talent de Raul Laplacette, nommé meilleur homme du match, n'a rien pu y faire.

Ce match, basé sur la défense, s'est logiquement conclu sur un petit score, 6 à 5, au bout d'un suspense irrespirable, chaque équipe se rendant coup pour coup. Grâce à une incroyable action individuelle, Raul Laplacette avait une fois de plus ramené les deux équipes à égalité à moins de deux minutes du coup de cloche final, mais une fois de plus, dans la toute dernière minute, Max Charlton a su profiter d'une pénalité à 60 yards qu'il a transformée au pas comme toutes les pénalités dont il a bénéficié au cours de la rencontre : « Oui, cela a été une rude bataille qui s'est jouée sur les pénalités, concédait le Britannique. Et si nous avons gagné aujourd'hui, je reconnais que c'est juste parce que nous avons eu un petit plus de chance que Gstaad Palace, car les deux équipes se valaient. Mais je suis particulièrement heureux d'avoir gagné ici, pour Philipp (Müller, son capitaine). It's amazing ».

J. Safra Sarasin sur la troisième marche du podium.

Dans le match d'ouverture, finale pour la troisième place, victoire de l'équipe de la capitaine française François Okala, sous les couleurs bleues de la banque J. Safra Sarasin après notamment un très « gros » deuxième chukker. Conduits par le handicap 6 argentin Horacio Fernandez Llorente, auteur de quatre goals, les « Bleus » ont dominé la rencontre de bout en bout, ayant pris les mesures du terrain qu'ils découvraient jeudi dernier : « En fait, pas tout à fait, tenait à préciser Tete Fanelli. C'est la troisième fois que je joue ici. J'avais été deux fois finaliste, mais à chaque fois, j'avais perdu. Je pensais que cette année serait la mienne, alors cette troisième place ne me satisfait pas complètement. Ce qui n'empêche que j'apprécie énormément ce tournoi : l'organisation, l'environnement, l'ambiance. Alors, je compte bien revenir ici et en repartir avec la montre » !

Alors peut-être dès l'année prochaine, du 21 au 24 août, puisque le rendez-vous de ce tournoi pas comme les autres est déjà fixé ? Un événement dont le bilan est toujours positif au regard de la satisfaction exprimée à chaque fin de tournoi par les équipes, une célébration du polo que ce dimanche froid n'a rien gâché.

Finale 3ème- 4ème place

J. Safra Sarasin : Françoise Okala 0, Bautista Fanelli 3 (2 goals), Horacio Fernandez Llorente 6 (4 goals), et Tete Fanelli 5 (2 goals)

Hublot : Jurgen Schröder 0 (1 goal), Juan Correa 3 (3 goals), Pedro Fernandez Llorente 5 (1 goal), Manuel Fernandez Llorente 6 (1 goal)

Progression J. Safra Sarasin : 3-1 / 7-2 / 8-3, et 8-6

FINALE

Hublot Polo Gold Cup 2024: semifinali, una battaglia fino all'ultimo istante

Gstaad Palace e Kielder Agro Group avanzano alla finale

Le semifinali dell'Hublot Polo Gold Cup 2024 hanno superato tutte le aspettative in termini di suspense, con nessuna delle squadre riuscita a dominare completamente i propri incontri. Il risultato è rimasto incerto fino agli ultimi momenti, con due partite che hanno offerto spettacoli molto diversi.

Il primo match, tra Gstaad Palace e Hublot, è stato caratterizzato da un gioco prevalentemente offensivo. Al contrario, l'incontro tra Kielder Agro Group e J.Safra Sarasin è stato più difensivo, anche se paradossalmente si è visto un maggior numero di gol, la maggior parte dei quali segnati su rigore. Per il Gstaad Palace, l'intesa tra i fratelli Meier e i cugini Laplacette si è rivelata ancora una volta una risorsa decisiva.

È stata una battaglia feroce fino agli ultimi secondi, come ha sottolineato il miglior marcatore del Gstaad Palace, lo svizzero Luca Meier: "L'ultimo minuto è stato lunghissimo quando Hublot è rientrata in partita. Abbiamo commesso molti errori, e questo è stato il nostro problema. La fortuna ci ha abbandonati e abbiamo vinto di un solo gol, 7-6... ma sì, quell'ultimo minuto è stato difficile. Sono felice di aver segnato quei quattro gol, anche se oggi è stato più complicato perché il campo era più ruvido rispetto a ieri, quando ne avevo segnati tre. La palla rimbalzava dappertutto, ma alla fine è andata bene".

Luca Meier ha anche voluto evidenziare il ruolo fondamentale di Raul Laplacette nella vittoria: "Dato che ha vinto le ultime due edizioni dell'Hublot Polo Gold Cup, abbiamo pensato che sarebbe stata una buona idea reclutarlo quest'anno. Giocare con i Laplacette è molto naturale. Li conosciamo da quando eravamo bambini perché in Argentina abbiamo le nostre strutture per il polo nello stesso villaggio, a Lobos, quindi siamo sempre stati a stretto contatto".

Nel secondo match, il giocatore chiave è stato l'inglese Max Charlton. La sua strategia è stata leggermente diversa da quella di Raul Laplacette, concentrandosi nel mantenere una stretta pressione sugli avversari, cercando di provocare falli. Questa tattica si è rivelata efficace, seppur difficile, e la vittoria di oggi non è arrivata facilmente, dato che l'opposizione di J.Safra Sarasin è stata più forte del previsto.

"Eravamo fiduciosi, ma alla fine è stata una vittoria complicata", ha ammesso il capitano Philipp Müller. "All'inizio abbiamo faticato a trovare il ritmo giusto. Poi è andato tutto abbastanza bene, ma nell'ultimo chukker ci siamo resi conto che non potevamo dare nulla per scontato. Hanno pareggiato a meno di un minuto dalla fine e poi ci è stato assegnato un rigore a nostro favore. È quello che ci ha salvato. È stata una partita intensa con molti falli, e forse non la più bella, ma l'importante è essere in finale."

Questa finale vedrà un duello tra capitani svizzeri!

L'appuntamento è per domenica alle 15:00, quando queste due squadre, che non si sono ancora affrontate, si sfideranno in una finale che si preannuncia mozzafiato. Chi saranno i quattro giocatori che lasceranno Gstaad con un magnifico orologio Hublot al polso? La risposta arriverà intorno alle 16:00 di domani. La finale sarà preceduta dalla partita per il terzo posto alle 13:30.

Match 1
Gstaad Palace: Fabio Meier 1, Luca Meier 1 (4 gol), Adrien Laplacette 6 (2 gol) e Raul Laplacette 6 (1 gol)

Hublot: Jurgen Schröder 0 (3 gol), Juan Correa 3 (1 gol), Pedro Fernandez Llorente 5 (2 gol), Manuel Fernandez Llorente 6

Progressione Gstaad Palace: 3-2 / 5-2 / 6-3 e 7-6

Match 2
Kielder Agro Group: Philipp Mueller 0, Jaime Robert 3 (2 gol), Nacho Gonzales 4 e Max Charlton 6 (7 gol)

J. Safra Sarasin: Françoise Okala 0, Bautista Fanelli 3 (1 gol), Horacio Fernandez Llorente 6 (1 gol) e Tete Fanelli 5 (6 gol)

Progressione Kielder Agro Group: 0-2 / 3-4 / 7-6 / 9-8

Sunday August 25, 2024

It may not have been the most beautiful match of the week, but when the final is on the line the only appealing result is a win. Today, polo was a sport of strategy, combat, and patience: and Britain's Max Charlton proved to be the strongest at this game. All the talent of Raul Laplacette could do nothing about it, despite being named best player of the match.

It was a defensive final which, naturally, concluded with a low score of 6-5. It was unbearable suspense until the end, with each team returning goals blow for blow. With only two minutes left on the clock, a remarkable individual play by Raul Laplacette leveled the score once again, and with mere seconds to go, Max Charlton took advantage of another 60-yard penalty. It was the goal that ultimately determined the match.

"Yes, it was a tough fight played out on penalties," the Briton admitted. "We won today because we were a little bit luckier than Gstaad Palace since both teams were on equal footing. But I'm particularly pleased to have won here, for Phillipp [Müller, his captain]. It's amazing!"

J. Safra Sarasin landed on the third step of the podium.

Today's opening match, the final for third place, was clinched by French captain François Okala's team, donning the distinctive J.Safra Sarasin colors, after an action-packed second chukker. Argentinian handicap 6 Horacio Fernandez Llorente led the charge, capturing four goals. The "blues" dominated the match from start to finish, after measuring up the pitch they only discovered last Thursday.

"Actually...not quite," Tete Fanelli was keen to point out. "This is the third time I've played here. I've been a finalist twice before but lost on both occasions. I thought this would be my year, so I'm not completely satisfied with third place. That doesn't stop me from enjoying this tournament enormously—the organization, the environment, the atmosphere. So I'm looking forward to coming back here and leaving with the watch!"

So, maybe next year from August 21-24. The date has already been set for this one-of-a-kind tournament, whose teams continuously express their satisfaction before they return home. This edition was no exception, an extraordinary celebration of polo that couldn't possibly be spoiled by a little cold on Sunday.

Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad 2024

Against the breathtaking backdrop of the Bernese Alps, the 27th edition of Europe's highest-altitude polo tournament Hublot Polo Gold Cup unfolded from August 23rd to 25th. Held at the Gstaad-Saanenland airport on a specially created cancha, the event was marked by intense matches, where players and their horses showcased remarkable skill.

The winning team members, including Max Charlton and Nacho Gonzalez, were celebrated with exclusive Hublot Big Bang watches, engraved with their victory. The event drew a stylish crowd, including Swiss sprint champion Mujinga Kambundji, who participated in the traditional divot stomping between chukkers—a charming ritual steeped in polo tradition.

The tournament, under the official timekeeping of Hublot, offered a perfect blend of sport and luxury, leaving an indelible mark on all who attended.

Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad: Kielder Agro Group, una vittoria inglese

Non sarà stata la partita più spettacolare della settimana, ma quando la finale è in palio, l'unico risultato che conta è la vittoria. Oggi il polo è stato uno sport di strategia, combattimento e pazienza: e il britannico Max Charlton ha dimostrato di essere il più forte in questo gioco. Tutto il talento di Raúl Laplacette non è bastato, nonostante sia stato nominato miglior giocatore del match.

È stata una finale difensiva che, naturalmente, si è conclusa con un punteggio basso di 6-5. La suspense è stata insostenibile fino alla fine, con le due squadre che hanno risposto colpo su colpo. A soli due minuti dalla fine, una straordinaria azione individuale di Raúl Laplacette ha riportato il punteggio in parità e, con pochi secondi sul cronometro, Max Charlton ha sfruttato un altro calcio di punizione da 60 yard. È stato il gol che ha deciso definitivamente il match.

"Sì, è stata una dura battaglia giocata sui calci di punizione," ha ammesso il britannico. "Abbiamo vinto oggi perché siamo stati un po' più fortunati del Gstaad Palace, dato che entrambe le squadre erano alla pari. Ma sono particolarmente contento di aver vinto qui, per Philipp [Müller, il suo capitano]. È fantastico!"

La partita di apertura di oggi, la finale per il terzo posto, è stata vinta dalla squadra del capitano francese François Okala, che indossava i caratteristici colori del J.Safra Sarasin, dopo un secondo chukker ricco di azione. L'argentino Horacio Fernandez Llorente, con un handicap di 6, ha guidato l'assalto segnando quattro gol. I "blues" hanno dominato il match dall'inizio alla fine, dopo aver preso le misure del campo scoperto solo giovedì scorso.

https://www.horseshowjumping.tv/hublot-polo-gold-cup-gstaad-kielder-agro-group-una-vittoria-inglese/

"In realtà... non proprio," ha sottolineato Tete Fanelli. "Questa è la terza volta che gioco qui. Sono stato finalista due volte prima, ma ho perso in entrambe le occasioni. Pensavo che quest'anno fosse il mio, quindi non sono completamente soddisfatto del terzo posto. Ma questo non mi impedisce di godermi enormemente questo torneo: l'organizzazione, l'ambiente, l'atmosfera. Non vedo l'ora di tornare qui e portare a casa l'orologio!"

Forse l'anno prossimo, dal 21 al 24 agosto. La data è già stata fissata per questo torneo unico nel suo genere, le cui squadre esprimono continuamente la loro soddisfazione prima di tornare a casa. Questa edizione non ha fatto eccezione, una straordinaria celebrazione del polo che non poteva essere rovinata da un po' di freddo domenicale.

Finale per il 3° e 4° posto

J. Safra Sarasin: Françoise Okala 0, Bautista Fanelli 3 (2 gol), Horacio Fernandez Llorente 6 (4 gol) e Tete Fanelli 5 (2 gol)

Hublot: Jurgen Schröder 0 (1 gol), Juan Correa 3 (3 gol), Pedro Fernandez Llorente 5 (1 gol), Manuel Fernandez Llorente 6 (1 gol)

Progressione J. Safra Sarasin: 3-1 / 7-2 / 8-3 e 8-6

Rund 1,2 Millionen Personen folgen Carina Zavline auf Instagram. Damit gehört die frühere «Germany's Next Topmodel»-Kandidatin zu den erfolgreichsten Influencerinnen im deutschsprachigen Raum. Auf der Foto- und Videoplattform präsentiert sie sich vornehmlich selbst – und einen Lifestyle, um den sie viele beneiden dürften. Die «Bild»-Zeitung nennt es ein «irres Luxusleben», das die 27-Jährige führt.

Sie, das Model mit Ambitionen auf eine Schauspielkarriere, zückt das Handy an jenem Tag in Gstaad. Sie tut das oft – weil es hier sehr, sehr viel festzuhalten gibt.

Ein Privatjet ist hier, auf dem eigentlichen Flugplatz Saanen, ausgestellt; man darf ihn betreten und sich ihn anschauen. Aston Martin, britischer Hersteller doch eher teurerer Autos, ist omnipräsent – mit einem jener Oldtimer, die Leinwandfigur James Bond erstmals in «Goldfinger» und zuletzt in «No Time to Die» fuhr, sowie unter anderem mit einem Modell, das «Valkyrie» heisst, wie wir uns erklären lassen. Es verfügt über 1000 PS; der Preis ist im siebenstelligen Bereich anzusiedeln. Nur bloss rund 150 Stück soll es davon geben. Weltweit.

Der Hublot Polo Gold Cup ist eine der nobelsten Sportveranstaltungen hierzulande, vor zehn Jahren war mit Pippa Middleton ein Mitglied der britischen Königsfamilie zu Gast. Die Besucher sind grossteils gut gekleidet, nicht wenige von ihnen ziemlich gut bei Kasse – was ein Blick auf den Parkplatz offenbart, auf dem kostspielige Wagen stehen. Luxus-Influencerin Carina dürfte frohlocken.

Viel Spektakel – neben und auch auf dem Feld

Wer auf dem Gelände auftaucht, interessiert sich nicht notwendigerweise für den Sport. Das hier ist offensichtlich auch (oder: primär) ein gesellschaftlicher Anlass, ein Begegnungsort – nicht zuletzt jener Menschen, die in ihrem Chalet gerade Ferien machen. Mehr als bloss das Rahmenprogramm ist das Polospiel aber dennoch.

Als am frühen Nachmittag der erste Halbfinal beginnt, gilt die Aufmerksamkeit der allermeisten Gäste diesem im Grunde sehr aufregenden Sport. Beeindruckend ist die Dynamik der Pferde und ihrer Reiter, die, ausgestattet mit einem Stock, versuchen, den Ball ins Tor des Gegners zu schiessen.

Die Veranstaltung sei in der Welt des Polos bekannt, sie geniesse ein hohes Ansehen, erzählt der Franzose Pascal Renauldon, ein profilierter Kenner der Szene. Sein Renommee habe der Anlass seiner speziellen Atmosphäre zu verdanken, der wunderbaren Landschaft. Die Partien fänden nicht auf absolutem Weltklasseniveau, aber auf einem guten Level statt. Gar exzellent spielt Raul Laplacette. Argentinier ist er – wie die meisten der global Besten. Immer wieder figuriert er im Saanenland in einem der jährlich neu zusammengesetzten Teams, weshalb der Profi als Spezialist für die ungewöhnlichen hiesigen Bedingungen gilt. Er prägte die letzten Veranstaltungen, vermag am Halbfinaltag aber nicht ganz so sehr zu brillieren. Ihm gelingt beim 7:6-Sieg seines Teams für einmal bloss ein Treffer.

Palace, Hublot, Aston Martin: Viel exklusiver geht nicht

Angereist sind der Südamerikaner und das Gros der anderen Spieler Anfang Woche, der Event beginnt donnerstags, am Freitag folgt die Parade durch Gstaad, wobei es sich um einen ersten gesellschaftlichen Höhepunkt des Ereignisses handelt.

Die Dinge sind perfekt organisiert, die Leute ausgesprochen freundlich. Der Parkplatz ist kostenlos, genauso wie der Eintritt.

Gerade steigt die 27. Austragung des Anlasses; etabliert ist er in der Region längst, auch als Ergänzung zum Tennis- und zum Beachvolleyballturnier, die ein jeweils anderes Publikum ansprechen.

Die Veranstaltung kreiere ein besonderes Ambiente, sagt Arlane Ludwig-Meichtry, die bei der ansässigen Tourismusorganisation den Bereich Marketing und Sales leitet. Sie bezeichnet den Event als einen der Top-5-Anlässe in der Region und hält fest, dass diese gemäss diversen Wertschöpfungsstudien einen sehr relevanten Beitrag leisteten.

Unterstützt wird der Polocup unter anderem vom Palace, Gstaads wohl bekanntestem Hotel. Es ist auf dem Gelände auffallend präsent – indem es für das Catering für die VIP-Gäste verantwortlich zeichnet und neben den Foodtrucks ein Zelt stehen hat, das dem ikonischen Bau nachempfunden ist. Ausserdem tritt eines der Teams unter entsprechendem Namen an, sodass sich am Samstag die Mannschaft der Luxusuhrenmarke Hublot mit jener des Palace um den Finaleinzug duelliert. Hublot, Palace: Das mag sich für den Normalsterblichen nach einem viel zu teuer geratenen Wochenende anhören. Und tatsächlich kriegen wir am Samstag mitunter den Eindruck, uns in einer andern Welt zu befinden, in die wir im Grunde nicht hingehören. Unwohl aber fühlen wir uns nicht.

Das Mittagessen zum Budgetpreis

Die Dinge sind perfekt organisiert, die Leute ausgesprochen freundlich. Der Parkplatz ist kostenlos, genauso wie der Eintritt. Als wir Hunger kriegen, holen wir uns Chicken Nuggets und Pommes sowie ein Softgetränk. 13 Franken kostet das addiert. In der Badi hätten wir dafür deutlich mehr bezahlt. Wir staunen ob der spektakulären Autos des Sponsors, fragen uns aber, ob wir damit wirklich beim Büro in der Lorraine würden vorfahren wollen. Unbestritten ist: Mit Schweizerdeutsch kommt man hier nicht weit. Englisch und Französisch dominieren. Für Influencerin Carina übrigens ist das kein Problem: Sie spricht sechs Sprachen, wie sie auf ihrem Instagram-Profil stolz festhält.

Der bange Moment

Das Wetter ist während unseres Besuchs am Samstag optimal, die Atmosphäre vor Ort entsprechend. Vierstellige Zuschauerzahlen pflegt die Veranstaltung jährlich auszuweisen. Wer kommt, wird unter anderem vom hervorragend aufgelegten Platzsprecher unterhalten, dessen Humor dem Event guttut.

Das Lachen vergeht uns, als auf einmal einer der Schiedsrichter am Boden liegt. In derlei Momenten wird klar, welch Kräfte wirken, wenn sich acht Pferde auf vergleichsweise wenig Platz befinden. Kurzzeitig herrscht hier, an einem Ort, wo sämtliche Probleme weit weg zu sein scheinen, eine bedrückte Stimmung. Der Mann aber steht auf – die Show kann weitergehen.

Enden wird sie am darauffolgenden Tag. Und zwar mit einem Sieg des Teams Kielder Agro Group über jenes des Palace – das 5:6 verliert, obwohl Raul Laplacette abermals zur grossen Figur avanciert und nun dreimal trifft.

Die verpflichteten Spieler kehren nach Hause zurück. Und Influencerin Carina macht sich an die Arbeit – sie wird zwei Beiträge und eine Vielzahl von Storys posten.

Ein Hingucker – und beste Werbung für den Sponsor: Den Rennwagen darf man fotografieren, aber nicht ohne Erlaubnis berühren.

Steht der Sport nur scheinbar im Vordergrund? Impressionen vom Gelände, auf dem unter anderem ein Flugzeug präsentiert wird.

Gold Cup Gstaad Kielder Agro Group: an English victory!

Mathew James August 30, 2024 4:33 pm

It may not have been the most beautiful match of the week, but when the final is on the line the only appealing result is a win. Today, polo was a sport of strategy, combat, and patience: and Britain's Max Charlton proved to be the strongest at this game. All the talent of Raul Laplacette could do nothing about it, despite being named best player of the match.

It was a defensive final which, naturally, concluded with a low score of 6-5. It was unbearable suspense until the end, with each team returning goals blow for blow. With only two minutes left on the clock, a remarkable individual play by Raul Laplacette leveled the score once again, and with mere seconds to go, Max Charlton took advantage of another 60-yard penalty. It was the goal that ultimately determined the match.

"Yes, it was a tough fight played out on penalties," the Briton admitted. "We won today because we were a little bit luckier than Gstaad Palace since both teams were on equal footing. But I'm particularly pleased to have won here, for Phillipp [Müller, his captain]. It's amazing!"

J. Safra Sarasin landed on the third step of the podium.

Today's opening match, the final for third place, was clinched by French captain François Okala's team, donning the distinctive J.Safra Sarasin colors, after an action-packed second chukker. Argentinian handicap 6 Horacio Fernandez Llorente led the charge, capturing four goals. The "blues" dominated the match from start to finish, after measuring up the pitch they only discovered last Thursday.

"Actually...not quite," Tete Fanelli was keen to point out. "This is the third time I've played here. I've been a finalist twice before but lost on both occasions. I thought this would be my year, so I'm not completely satisfied with third place. That doesn't stop me from enjoying this tournament enormously—the organization, the environment, the atmosphere. So I'm looking forward to coming back here and leaving with the watch!"

So, maybe next year from August 21-24. The date has already been set for this one-of-a-kind tournament, whose teams continuously express their satisfaction before they return home. This edition was no exception, an extraordinary celebration of polo that couldn't possibly be spoiled by a little cold on Sunday.

Gstaad Palace vs J. Safra Sarasin

DATE: 22 AUGUST

The tournament commenced with a raging opening battle between Gstaad Palace and J. Safra Sarasin. Gstaad Palace quickly comprehended the environment and made changes to overcome the opposition quickly and build up a formidable lead, which helped them win the game with ease.

Winners:
Gstaad Palace (10-6)

Kielder Agro Group vs Hublot

The following game on the same day featured Kielder Agro Group and Hublot. Kielder announced their arrival by upsetting the opposition by almost having double points, as scored by Hublot. Being less decisive and having scattered teamwork, Hublot lost their first game and momentum in their opening match.

Winners:
Kielder Agro Group (9.5-5)

SEMI-FINAL 1

Ojo Caliente vs Limitless

DATE: 24 AUGUST

The first semi-final was played between Gstaad and Hublot, and unlike the previous games, this one was a close call. Looking to redeem their reputation, Hublot made some changes to their game and, being more determined, was extremely cautious not to exceed any extra goals. They certainly performed much better than the previous game, but having no luck today, they lost the game by a single point.

Winners:

Kielder Agro Group vs J. Safra Sarasin

The second semi-final was a high-goal contest between Kielder Agro Group and J. Safra Sarasin. The latter team also had a stain to clear after a crushing defeat in the first game. They certainly upped their game and went all out, but were unable to hold their composure better than the opponents in the crucial moment and lost the game by a single point

Winners:
Kielder Agro Group (9-8)

FINAL

Kielder Agro Group vs Gstaad

DATE: 25 AUGUST

The finals arrived, with both teams having been exceptional thus far and playing defensively the whole time. The game was low-scoring but every bit as exciting as the semis. Kielder once again had luck on their side and outplayed Gstaad, winning the cup by having one extra goal with them by the end of time.

Hublot Polo Gold Cup

POLO IN GSTAAD

Organized by the Gstaad Polo Club, the Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad 2024 has a new champion: Kielder Agro Group. The green-shirted team, made up of Philipp Mueller, Max Charlton, Jaime Roberts and Nacho González, defeated the Gstaad Palace Polo Team to lift the trophy at this exclusive event nestled in the Alps.

Polo in Gstaad

It's that time of year when the Gstaad-Saanen airport ceases operations and the grassy area alongside its runway is transformed into a stunning polo field, ready to host the Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad. An exclusive four-day event in the heart of the magnificent Swiss Alps with a unique format: only four teams can compete for the coveted trophy and three matches determine the finalists.

This year, the selected captains came from three different nations, Germany, Switzerland and France, and the total of the 16 players represented six nations, with professionals from Argentina, Italy and the United Kingdom. The first semifinal between Gstaad Palace Polo Team with brothers Luca and Fabio Meier and cousins Adrián and Raúl Laplacette and Hublot Polo Team with Jurgen Schroeder, Juan Correa, Pedro Fernández Llorente and Manuel Fernández Llorente ended in triumph for the orange-shirted boys of Hublot. The second semifinal was Kielder Agro Group Polo Team with Philipp Mueller, Jaime Roberts, Nacho González and Max Charlton against J. Safra Sarasin Polo Team with Françoise Okala (the first lady to participate in Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad), Bautista Fanelli, Horacio Fernández Llorente and Tete Fanelli. This second match ended in triumph for Kielder Agro Group, and with this victory, the team reached the coveted final where they defeated Gstaad Palace Polo Team. A tough and even final in which the scoreboard read a very even 6-5. "It's actually my first time and I've heard so many good things about this tournament and indeed it's one of the best organized tournaments I've ever played, then of course playing in Switzerland, my home country, makes it even more special," commented Philipp Mueller.

As we have come to expect, the tournament was superbly organized. Pierre Genecand, President of the Gstaad Polo Club and long-time organizer of this event, has accustomed us to four days of good polo, VIP events between and after the matches, and a rest day in which the traditional team parade takes the streets of Gstaad. This year, there was also a VIP village (open to the public) with exclusive luxury products, the latest models both from Aston Martin and Dassault Aviation and, of course, Hublot's presentation of its new collections. The Hublot Polo Gold Cup Gstaad is a unique sporting event. Organized down to the last detail, it is definitely a celebration of equestrian excellence and luxury.

Now it was Gstaad Palace Polo Team's turn to parade. A vibrant celebration through the picturesque streets.

Gstaad is a picturesque Alpine town renowned for its charm and luxury. A year-round destination, Gstaad is famous for its world-class skiing in the winter and scenic hiking trails in the summer, when it transforms into a vibrant haven of natural beauty and outdoor adventure.

The streets of Gstaad were packed with a mix of locals and travelers captivated by the idyllic beauty of this Alpine gem.
